B. Discussion Item: Spartan Squad Ambassadors

Introduction to Spartan Squad Ambassadors and thinking about fun initiatives we can do

C. Discussion Item: Resource Picture Scavenger Hunt

I had the idea to do a Resource Scavenger Hunt in collaboration with different campus resources—especially the ones that aren't as well known. The goal is to help students get more active, engaged, and aware of the support available to them on campus. I'm thinking of running it through Instagram, where students would visit each resource, take a photo, and once they've visited them all, they can win a prize. I think this could be a fun and interactive way to promote awareness and involvement.

D. Discussion Item: Housing and Food Insecurity Collaboration

One of my main priorities this year is housing insecurity. Given the rising costs across the Bay Area and the current climate of our university, more and more students are experiencing housing instability firsthand. Attending the housing insecurity workshop during CSUnity really pushed me to focus on this issue more deeply. With 13% of SJSU students facing housing insecurity, I want to explore how we can better support them through programs, resources, and increased education on the topic.
