Math Bridges to Academic Success

The CSU Chancellor's Office is coordinating a CSU Math Summit for math department chairs and teachers, academic counselors, superintendents, principals and administrators, curriculum and instruction staff, and others in secondary education to raise awareness about math preparation for college and career. Topics include the CSU math bridge courses (MRWC, QRAT, TQR, TCLM), the new math framework, the CSU math placement process, panel discussions with CSU math faculty, and more.

Date: April 15, 2024
Time: 7:30am to 1:00pm
Location: Santa Clara County Office of Education

Register for the CSU Math Summit: Math Bridges to Academic Success

Please forward this information to your colleagues at your high school campus.

MySJSU Account Activation

If your student applied to SJSU, they should have received an individual Student ID to activate their MySJSU account.

MySJSU is the official communication tool during a students admission and enrollment process at San Jose State University. Please remind your students who applied to SJSU to activate their MySJSU account to check important messages and "To Do List" items.

Students can also view their admissions status through their MySJSU account. After students create their MySJSU account they can log in to one.sjsu.edu then click on Self Service title, next, Student Center, and Application Status.

SJSU Receptions

Please remind your students about our upcoming campus receptions! These receptions are important for newly admitted students to visit the campus, ask questions, and be exposed to campus resources.
