Prerequisites:	Completion of Reflection on College Writing
GE/SJSU Studies Category:	Satisfies GE Area A2 Written Communication I (with a grade of C- or better)

Course Description

English 1A is an introductory writing course that helps students understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, students learn to think clearly and write effectively as they give form and coherence to complex ideas. Students practice these skills by writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

In our section of English 1A, we will be developing our rhetorical abilities while focusing on the theme of humor. Humor and the comedic arts are rhetorical in that they represent sophisticated arguments that aspire not only to elicit laughter from audiences, but also possibly to provoke, persuade, correct, or condemn them. We will do some serious analysis of comedic compositions and performances to understand their purposes and audiences; that is, how the art form reflects and shapes attitudes about contemporary social issues. We'll also discover something about ourselves when we examine just what it is we find so funny.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

1. read actively and rhetorically;
2. perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance;
3. articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
4. integrate your ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres;
5. use college-level language with clarity and grammatical proficiency.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbooks

Boyle, Kirk. The Rhetoric of Humor. Bedford/St. Martin's. ISBN: 978-1-319-02013-2

Other Required Readings

Purdue Online Writing Lab website for grammar and documentation conventions

Additional readings must be downloaded from our virtual classroom in Canvas

Other technology requirements / equipment / material

Regular access to the internet and Canvas and a word processor.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Assignments

- Essay Assignment Word Count and Learning Goals (GELOs 1-5): For each essay, you will be given a prompt with specific guidelines to write the essay. Both rough and final drafts must be typed, using MLA documentation style. All final essays must be submitted to Turnitin.com via Canvas to check for plagiarism.

Essay Assignment	Word Count	GELOs
Essay 1: humor theory analysis	1000	1, 2, 4, 5
Essay 2: ethos and rhetor analysis	1000	1-5
Essay 3: film reflection	750	1-5
Essay 4: argument—the comic right to offend	1200	1-5
Final self-reflection essay and e-portfolio	750	1-5

- Peer Review Workshops and Essay Revision (GELOs 1, 2, 5): For three of the essays, you will write a complete rough draft to participate in a peer-review workshop. You will exchange rough drafts with a classmate and comment upon the strengths and weaknesses of each other's essays and offer suggestions for improvement.
- Reading Responses and Discussion Posts (GELOs 1, 4, 5): For our reading assignments this semester, you will compose a reading response or discussion post. They are due in Canvas before class on the day they are listed in the schedule. You can work ahead if you like. Responses and Discussion posts should be at least a healthy paragraph, around 200 words in length, and demonstrate thoughtfulness in response to the prompt and assigned reading.
- Grammar and Writing Homework and In-class Activities (GELO 1, 2, 5): Listed in the schedule are some grammar exercises and writing practice homework that will help you to articulate your ideas clearly.
- Final Exam (SLO 2, 3, 5): The final exam will be a self-reflection essay. Please note the exam schedule for your class section below:
 - Sect 55 (TTh 9:00-10:15): Final Exam is on Wed, Dec 9, 7:15-9:30 am

Classroom Protocol

- Office Hours: Visit my scheduled office hours or by appointment if you would like extra help.
- Email: Please email me to inform me of an absence or to ask questions about assignments. Put our course name and section number or time/date of our course (for example: 1A, MW 9am) in the Subject of your email. Also, please include a salutation and address me by name (e.g., Hi Allison, or Good morning Mrs. St. Dennis, or Hello Professor St. Dennis) in your email, and sign your emails with your name. Also, use your best prose (capitalization, punctuation, complete sentences) so that your writing is easy to read. These are all professional courtesies and good practice for your future careers.
- Attendance: We will do activities in our live class sessions, for which you will receive points. There are no make-ups for these assignments. If you are absent, email me so I can advise you of any important class developments. Check Canvas for announcements too.
- Late work and make-ups: You will need a documented, excused absence for any work that is not turned in on the due date. Late papers without an excused absence will be marked down a letter grade for each class period they are late. These policies are in place to be fair to your classmates who also have demanding schedules. Provide documentation (doctor's note, etc.) to excuse an absence.
- Classroom and online conduct: Please be courteous in our live classes and in your written online responses to me and to your fellow classmates. In class, this means listening when I am lecturing and when another classmate is speaking and keeping your mic muted when you are not speaking to cut out background noises. I hope you will turn your video cameras on so we associate a face with a name and create a sense of community. I encourage you to turn on your mics when you have a question or comment, too. When critiquing one another's work online, offer constructive and kind advice.
- How You'll Use Your Work for the Final Self-Reflection Essay: You will use the archive of your work to write your self-reflection essay at the end of the semester. This archive will consist of any writing, drafting, instructional videos or handouts, reading, and feedback. You'll refer to important pieces of this archive to discuss your progress over the semester and evaluate the tools you found most useful.

University Policies

The Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs (GUP) maintains university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. You may find all syllabus-related University Policies and resources information listed on GUP's Syllabus Information web page at <http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo>.
