* Classroom Protocols

Classroom Protocol

While engaging with peers and assignments, students are to be respectful of the unique characteristics and qualities that make each of us who we are. In class, discussion is welcome and encouraged, but comments found to be intentionally offensive, disrespectful, or combative are not allowed. Likewise, in-class discussions, texts/readings/viewings, and projects/activities may include materials that can be contentious and even potentially upsetting to you or others. We may encounter materials that differ from and perhaps challenge our ideas, beliefs, and understanding of reality. Students are encouraged to discuss issues about such materials with me. If for any reason such material causes you alarm, I encourage you to speak with me directly at your earliest convenience.

Excused absences: If you miss a day of class, then you miss it. If assignments are due the day you missed, you need to have any possible extensions arranged and approved with me beforehand. In-class writings cannot be made-up or turned in at a later date, as I partially track participation using those writings. Anyone seeking an excused absence must provide documentation from a legal, medical, or academic source (this includes athletics, clubs, etc) stating when and why you were absent.

Restroom breaks: If you need to use the restroom at any point during class, there is no need to ask, wait, or otherwise make a show of it. Simply leave and go do your business.

Cell phones/Recording devices: If you need to use your cell phone to search something, text, etc, by all means. We all understand this is a classroom, however, and we're not here to engage with your cell phone activity (music, videos, orders, games, etc). You're spending money to be here and this is my place of employment- be courteous to your peers and to me. If you need to take a call or something else that would interrupt class, quietly step outside. Additionally, any recording devices in use during class time without prior consent from the university, is unlawful and prohibited. Please see accommodations notice below.

Food and drink: We're going to be in class for 2.5 hours, so feel free to bring food and drink to class. However, do be aware that this is a classroom shared by hundreds, so clean up your own messes, keep in mind people may have allergies (I have zero allergies, FYI), and generally be respectful. Please do not order food to be delivered to class. We may have weekly food items to try, based on everyone's interest. Stay tuned.

Accommodations Notice: any student that needs accommodations or assistive technology due to a disability should work with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) (https://www.sjsu.edu/aec/), and the instructor. If you have special needs or accommodations requests, see me as soon as possible. Failure to do so may result in interruption or slowing of accommodations process.

CSU COVID-19 Vaccine Requirement and Protocol

All students must submit their COVID-19 vaccination requirements and comply with the Presidential Directive 2021-02 [pdf]

(https://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/PD%20081821%20Student%20COVID%2019%20Policy%20REVISED% 208%2016%2022.pdf) and CSU COVID-19 Policy (https://calstate.policystat.com/policy/11030468/latest/? mkt_tok=NjYzLVVLUS050TgAAAF_qklzrMX8plxxAqtcwpY5ITMSBKropI0_7T_g0vBzrchVR00_JHe-8CQylQypJKMzenwjL7ca-X5aYcTPKu_pDSWxE5wvJWQgEAav5Ptv). This requirement includes completing the COVID- 19 vaccine primary series and booster shot, when eligible.

● SCCPHD has a link for potential vaccine access: https://vax.sccgov.org/ (https://vax.sccgov.org/? https://vax.sccgov.org/ (https://vax.sccgov.org/? https://vax.sccgov.org/? This site will help you determine whether you are currently eligible for a vaccine.

Please note: While masks are not required inside our classroom at this time, if anyone so chooses to wear a mask while in class their choice will be honored and respected. If guidelines change and masks are required in class again, there will be a zero-tolerance policy for anyone who refuses to wear a mask.

Should you test positive for COVID (or any contagious illness) at any point during the semester, please contact me ASAP, so that we can make any necessary accommodations. The CDC recommends you remain home for a minimum of 5 days until you test negative- this recommendation needs to be taken seriously.

Course Format

This course meets on campus, in-person. I will use Canvas, the SJSU Learning Management System, to publish instructional materials, agendas, readings, activities, and assignments. In Canvas, you will submit your drafts, assignments, and reading responses with peer responses. Because of this, you will need regular access to the Internet and a computer, as well as your SJSU email account.

To produce and share your work, you will need software that allows you to save files as .doc or .docx, or .pdf. Canvas gives you access to Google docs for collaborations, as well as presentation software. Canvas includes video and audio recording abilities with Panopto. If you need help to access these technologies, please contact the Student Technology Service Desk.

As a student, you are entitled to free access to Microsoft Office, so visit this.link.to the Microsoft Office (https://ischool.sjsu.edu/post/microsoft-office) 365 website if that is something you need (you must use your SJSU email, which you can access by visiting this.link.to the most popular one.SJSU applications <a href="mailto:(https://one.sjsu.edu/) and then by clicking on "My Email G Suite"). You may also request free access to Adobe Creative Cloud, (https://www.sjsu.edu/adobe/creative-cloud/access/) which is a great resource for creating multimodal assignments in any class.

Course Management Page and MYSJSU Messaging

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on the Canvas course website. I will use Canvas messaging and announcements to update you, so it is your responsibility to check regularly for emails from me via Canvas. They will populate in your sjsu.edu email account (which you will need to set-up access for), in your Canvas inbox, and in any other email you link in Canvas.

ENGL 1B - Course Description

ENGL 1B

English 1B is a writing course that explores argumentation and analysis through the study of literary, rhetorical, and professional texts. You will develop the habits of mind required to analyze texts and write persuasively from and about them. You will practice prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing, and you will practice reading closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes.

Section 19

In this course, we'll explore how the relationship between food and lived experiences can inform many facets of our lives. Utilizing different writing styles, tonality, verbiage, and maybe even some demonstrations, we'll see how the broader topic of "food" lends itself to multimodal elements as part of the writing experience. By exploring the history of food through trends, traditions, as well as cultural and societal conventions, you'll begin to understand how we rhetorically argue what food means to us and how it currently affects our writing sensibilities more than ever. The goal of this course is to help you develop your voice, and also to articulate it effectively and persuasively by understanding the rhetorical situation of audience, purpose, and context, and by using the rhetorical strategies you learn and observe from others.

Program Policies

First-Year Writing policies are listed at the following website: https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php (https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php)

≅ Course Requirements and Assignments

Course Requirements, Time Commitments, & Assignments

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45-hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

ENGL 1B is a 3-unit course. That means we are signing up to do a minimum of 9-hours of study per week just for this class. 2½ hours will be class time. The remaining 7½ hours a week, you will work on your own or with your peers to prepare for class and complete reading and writing assignments. This class requires a minimum of 8,000 words, at least 4,000 of which must be in revised final draft form. I have designed the work using this math to guide us. I will refer to it often to help you manage this workload over the semester.

Research and Argumentative essay: topics affecting food/food industry - (GELOs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

Choose an example of rhetoric and write a 3-page report, plus sources cited page (4 pages total). Who is the intended audience? Does the source effectively or ineffectively accomplish its goal from an audience perspective? How could the example rhetoric have been improved?

Dish Demonstration: ***

Tasting Menu: Three course meal with descriptions - (GELOs 1, 3, 4)

Design a menu (with descriptions) based around three dishes you know how to make, one of which holds special meaning to your lived experience. Defend menu inspiration, design and dish choices, as well as begin thinking about how you can prepare one of these dishes in real time.

Meaningful Dish: the history of a food dish that means something to your life - (GELOs 3, 5)

Highlight both the objects and moments that have helped to create a meaningful dish to your life within a 1000-word photo essay.

Restaurant Criticism: Channel your inner food critic - (GELOs 2, 3, 5)

Referencing examples of restaurant criticisms, explore a new restaurant to you, organizing your thoughts, feelings, and experience around your visit, reviewing it critically and thoroughly.

In-class writings: Selection of writings from prompts given in class - (GELO 5)

Students will engage in writing activities in response to prompts given in class (no make-ups).

You will also participate in peer review activities.

Workshops - (GELOs 2, 4)

Small groups and entire class workshops will provide focused critique and analysis of existing works, mediums, and students' proposed writing projects.

Reading Responses - (GELO 1)

Students will reflect on and ask questions about that week's readings as they pertain to their own lived experiences.

Class participation

Discussions, peer reviews of presentations, attendance, etc.

Extra Credit

At instructor's discretion.

Grading Information

Determination of Grades

Grading, Late Policy, and Missed Work

This course must be passed with a C- or better, as a CSU graduation requirement. This is a course following the standard A-F scale, utilizing minimal grading (with the exception of your final major assignment). You must submit all work on time. Any unexcused late work will be graded down a full letter grade once, after the announced deadline has passed. If there is a reason you cannot make a deadline (because life happens) contact me BEFORE THE DEADLINE, so that we may mitigate the situation with a plan of action.

Misuse of these policies by any one student may result in having this option removed for all students. Extra credit may be offered at various points throughout the semester at my discretion. All proposed regular assignment deadlines will be Thursdays @ 11:59 PM PST with work uploaded to Canvas (unless otherwise indicated). Deadline dates and times are subject to change, but I will notify the class of any proposed changes in advance. While some assignments can be made-up for more points, others cannot as they are time-sensitive items and/or reflect your attendance/participation. Without prior notice, if you can't make it to class you forfeit those points for that day, so be wise about your time and responsibilities for the semester. Additionally, if you are more than 10-minutes late to class or leave early, you lose partial points for that days In-class Writing.
