

Portfolios with Portfolio

Getting started with Adobe Portfolio

John Delacruz, Associate Professor of Advertising Creative

SJSU HONORS

John Delacruz

Associate Professor, Advertising Creative

- Adobe Education Leader
- Adobe Master Teacher
- Creative Campus Faculty Fellow
- Creative Educator
- Paddleboarder

Why Portfolio, I'm not a designer

How do we get started

Head over to portfolio.adobe.com

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `portfolio.adobe.com/sites`. The page header includes the Adobe Portfolio logo and navigation icons. The main content area displays a welcome message: "Welcome John" and "Which site do you want to edit?". Below this, there are three site cards:

- Card 1: Features a thumbnail of a person on a kayak. The title is "John Delacruz". It is marked as "DEFAULT" and the URL is `johndelacruz.myportfolio.com`. The status is "Published - Updated 14 days ago".
- Card 2: Features a thumbnail of a classroom setting. The title is "John Delacruz's Teaching Portfolio". The URL is `johndelacruzadobefdi.myportfolio.com`. The status is "Published - Updated 3 months ago".
- Card 3: A dashed box containing a large orange circle and a blue circle with a white plus sign. The text below reads "New site" and "You can create up to 5 sites".

Each of the first two cards has a blue "Edit site" button and a three-dot menu icon.

Select Full Portfolio or Welcome Page

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio website interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays 'portfolio.adobe.com/start'. The main heading reads 'Build a beautiful website in minutes. Free with your Creative Cloud subscription.' Below this, a sub-headline says 'Preview and pick a theme. Don't worry, you can change it anytime.' Two buttons are visible: 'Full Portfolio' (highlighted in blue) and 'Welcome Page'. Below the buttons, two theme preview cards are shown. The 'Rose' theme features a clean, minimalist design with a white background, a list of work items on the left, and a central text block with a bio. The 'Ludwig' theme features a dark background with a grid of high-quality architectural and interior design images. Both theme previews include a mobile device view on the right side.

Adobe Portfolio

Build a beautiful website in minutes.
Free with your Creative Cloud subscription.

Preview and pick a theme. Don't worry, you can change it anytime.

Full Portfolio Welcome Page

Rose van der Ende

Work

- Kleur & Theorie - Book Design
- Logos & Marks - Logofolio
- The Merry Moore - Branding
- Aliza Levi Interiors - Branding
- Masterly - The Dutch in Milano
- Louise Coffee - Branding
- Dogwood - Branding
- Loaves Newsletter Design

Contact

in f d

My name is Rose van der Ende and I'm a passionate graphic designer. Within my designs I value simplicity, symmetry and detail. Whether I'm designing books, branding, packaging or websites I always strive for beauty and balance.

Scroll down to see my work

Rose van der Ende

My name is Rose van der Ende and I'm a passionate graphic designer. Within my designs I value simplicity, symmetry and detail. Whether I'm designing books, branding, packaging or websites I always strive for beauty and balance.

Scroll down to see my work

LOGOS & MARKS

A COLLECTION BY ADSE

LOGOS & MARKS

A COLLECTION BY ADSE

Rose

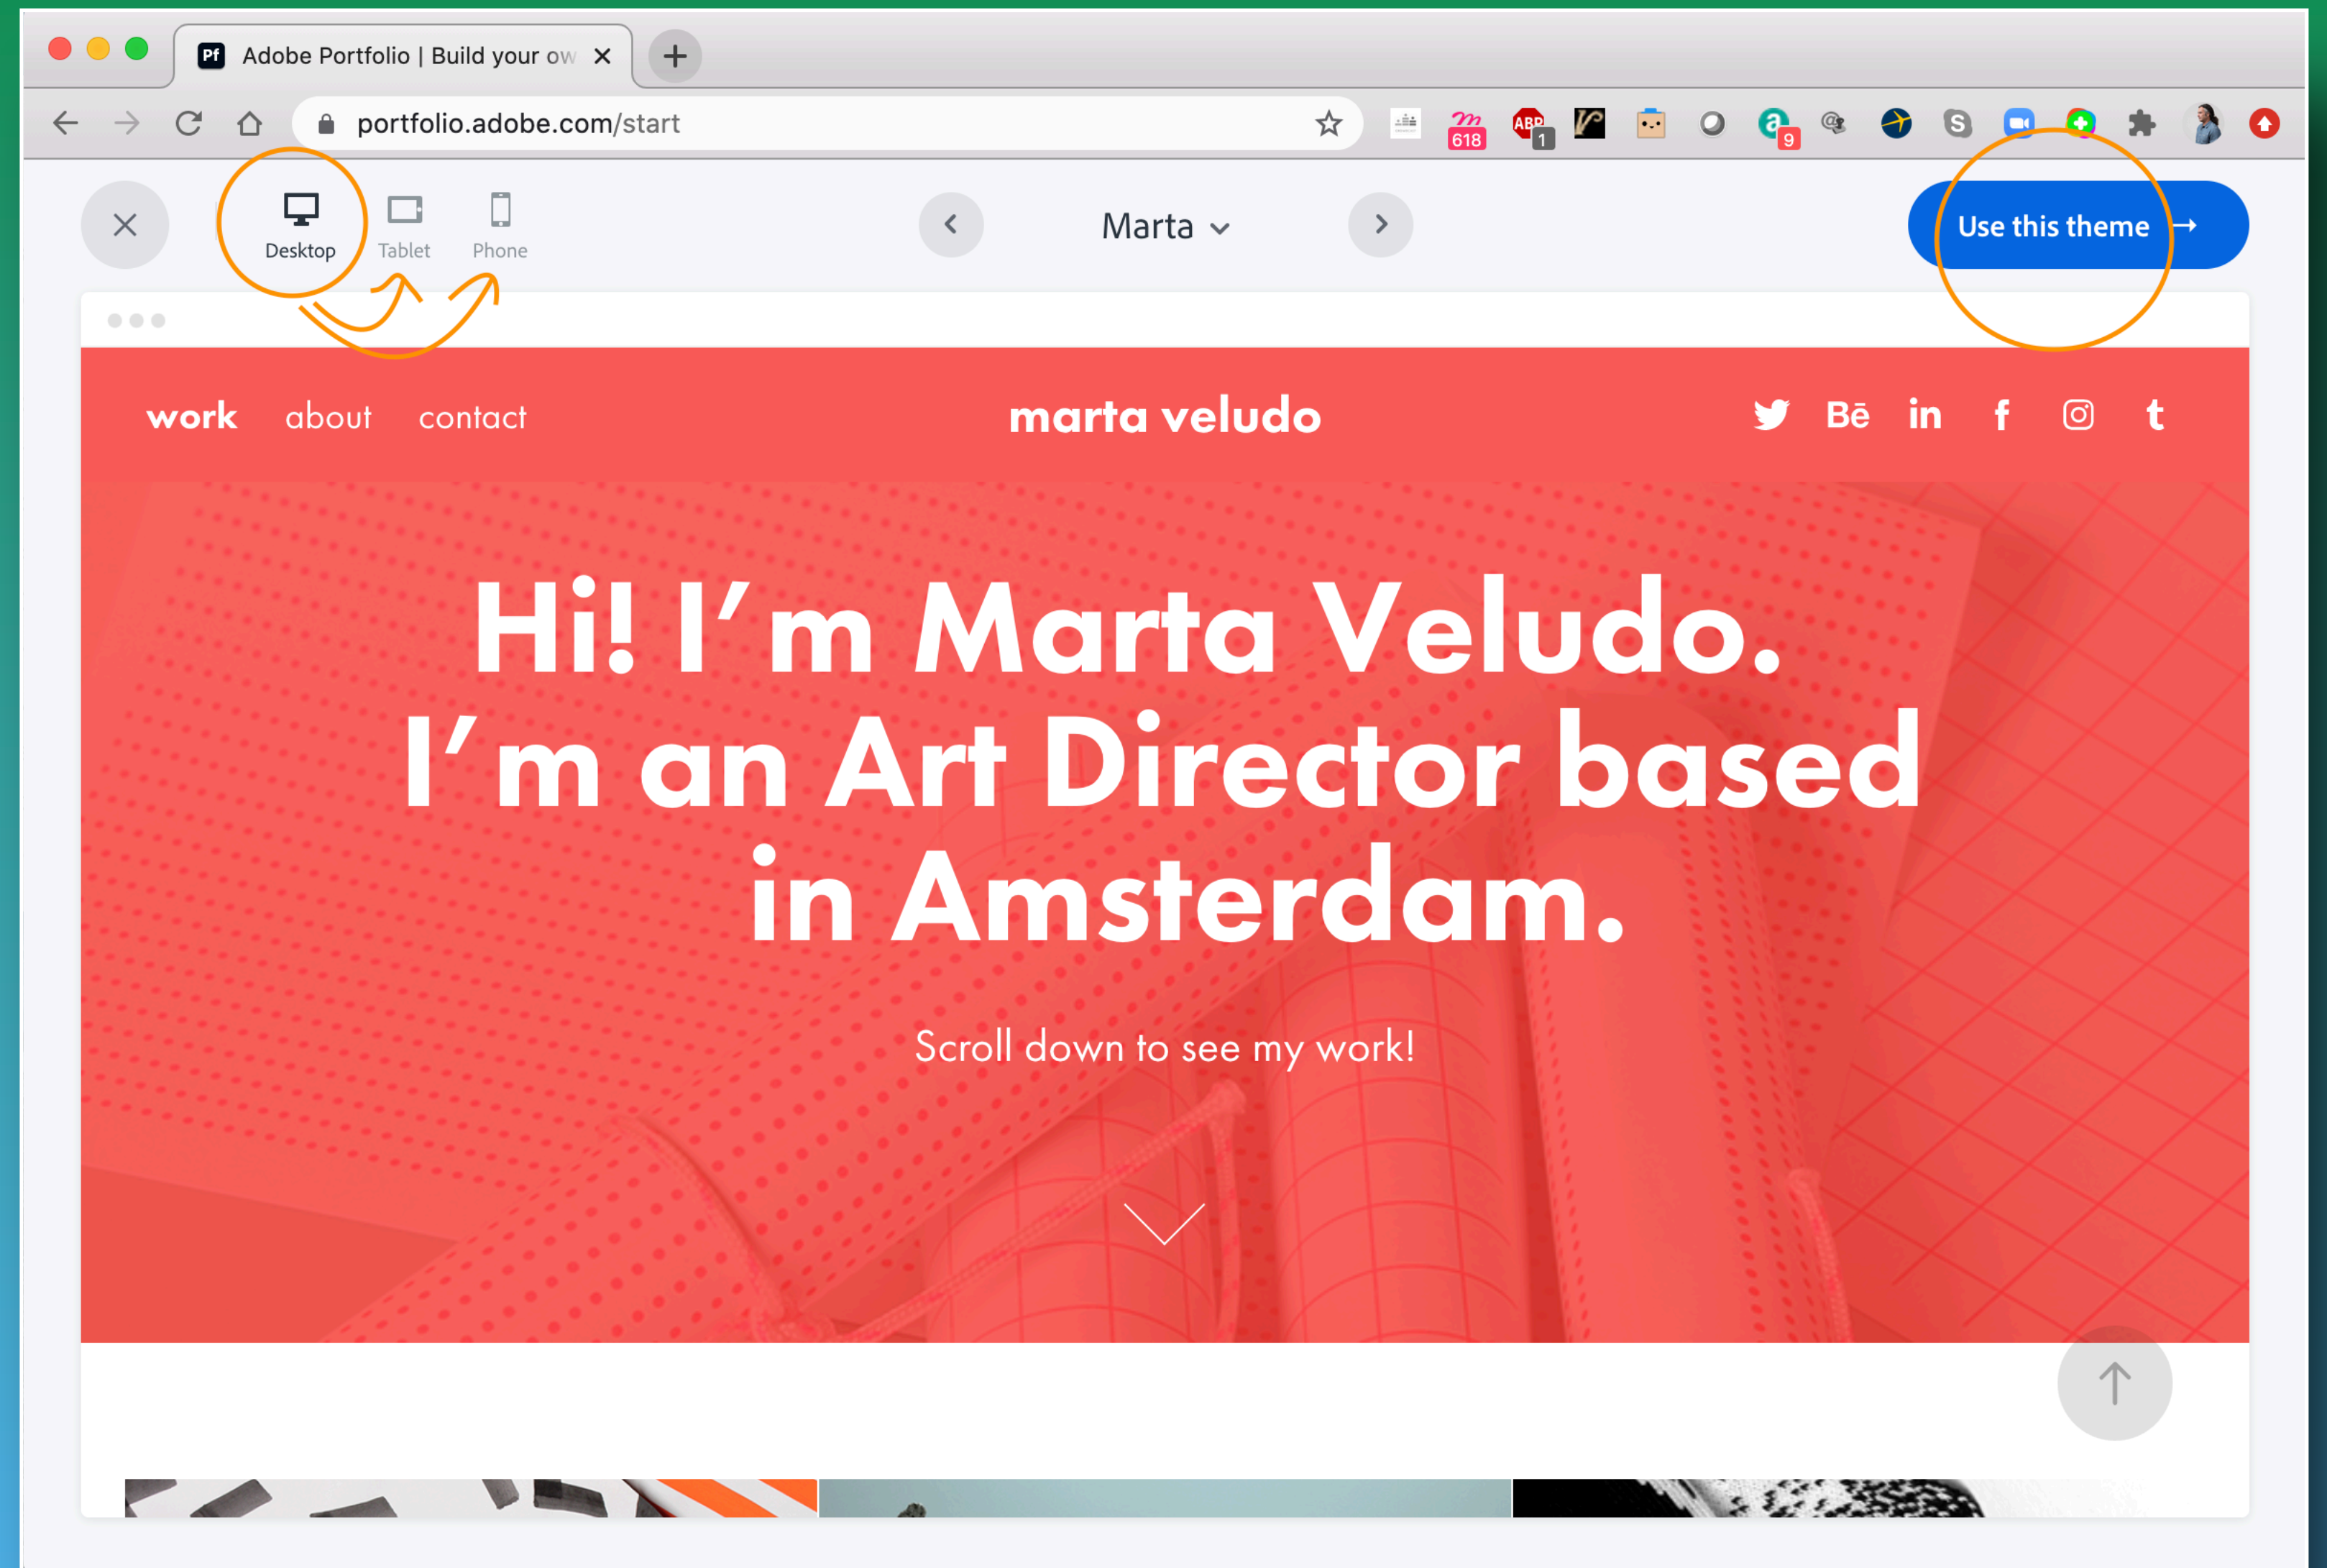

LUDWIG FAVRE

WORK ABOUT & CONTACT

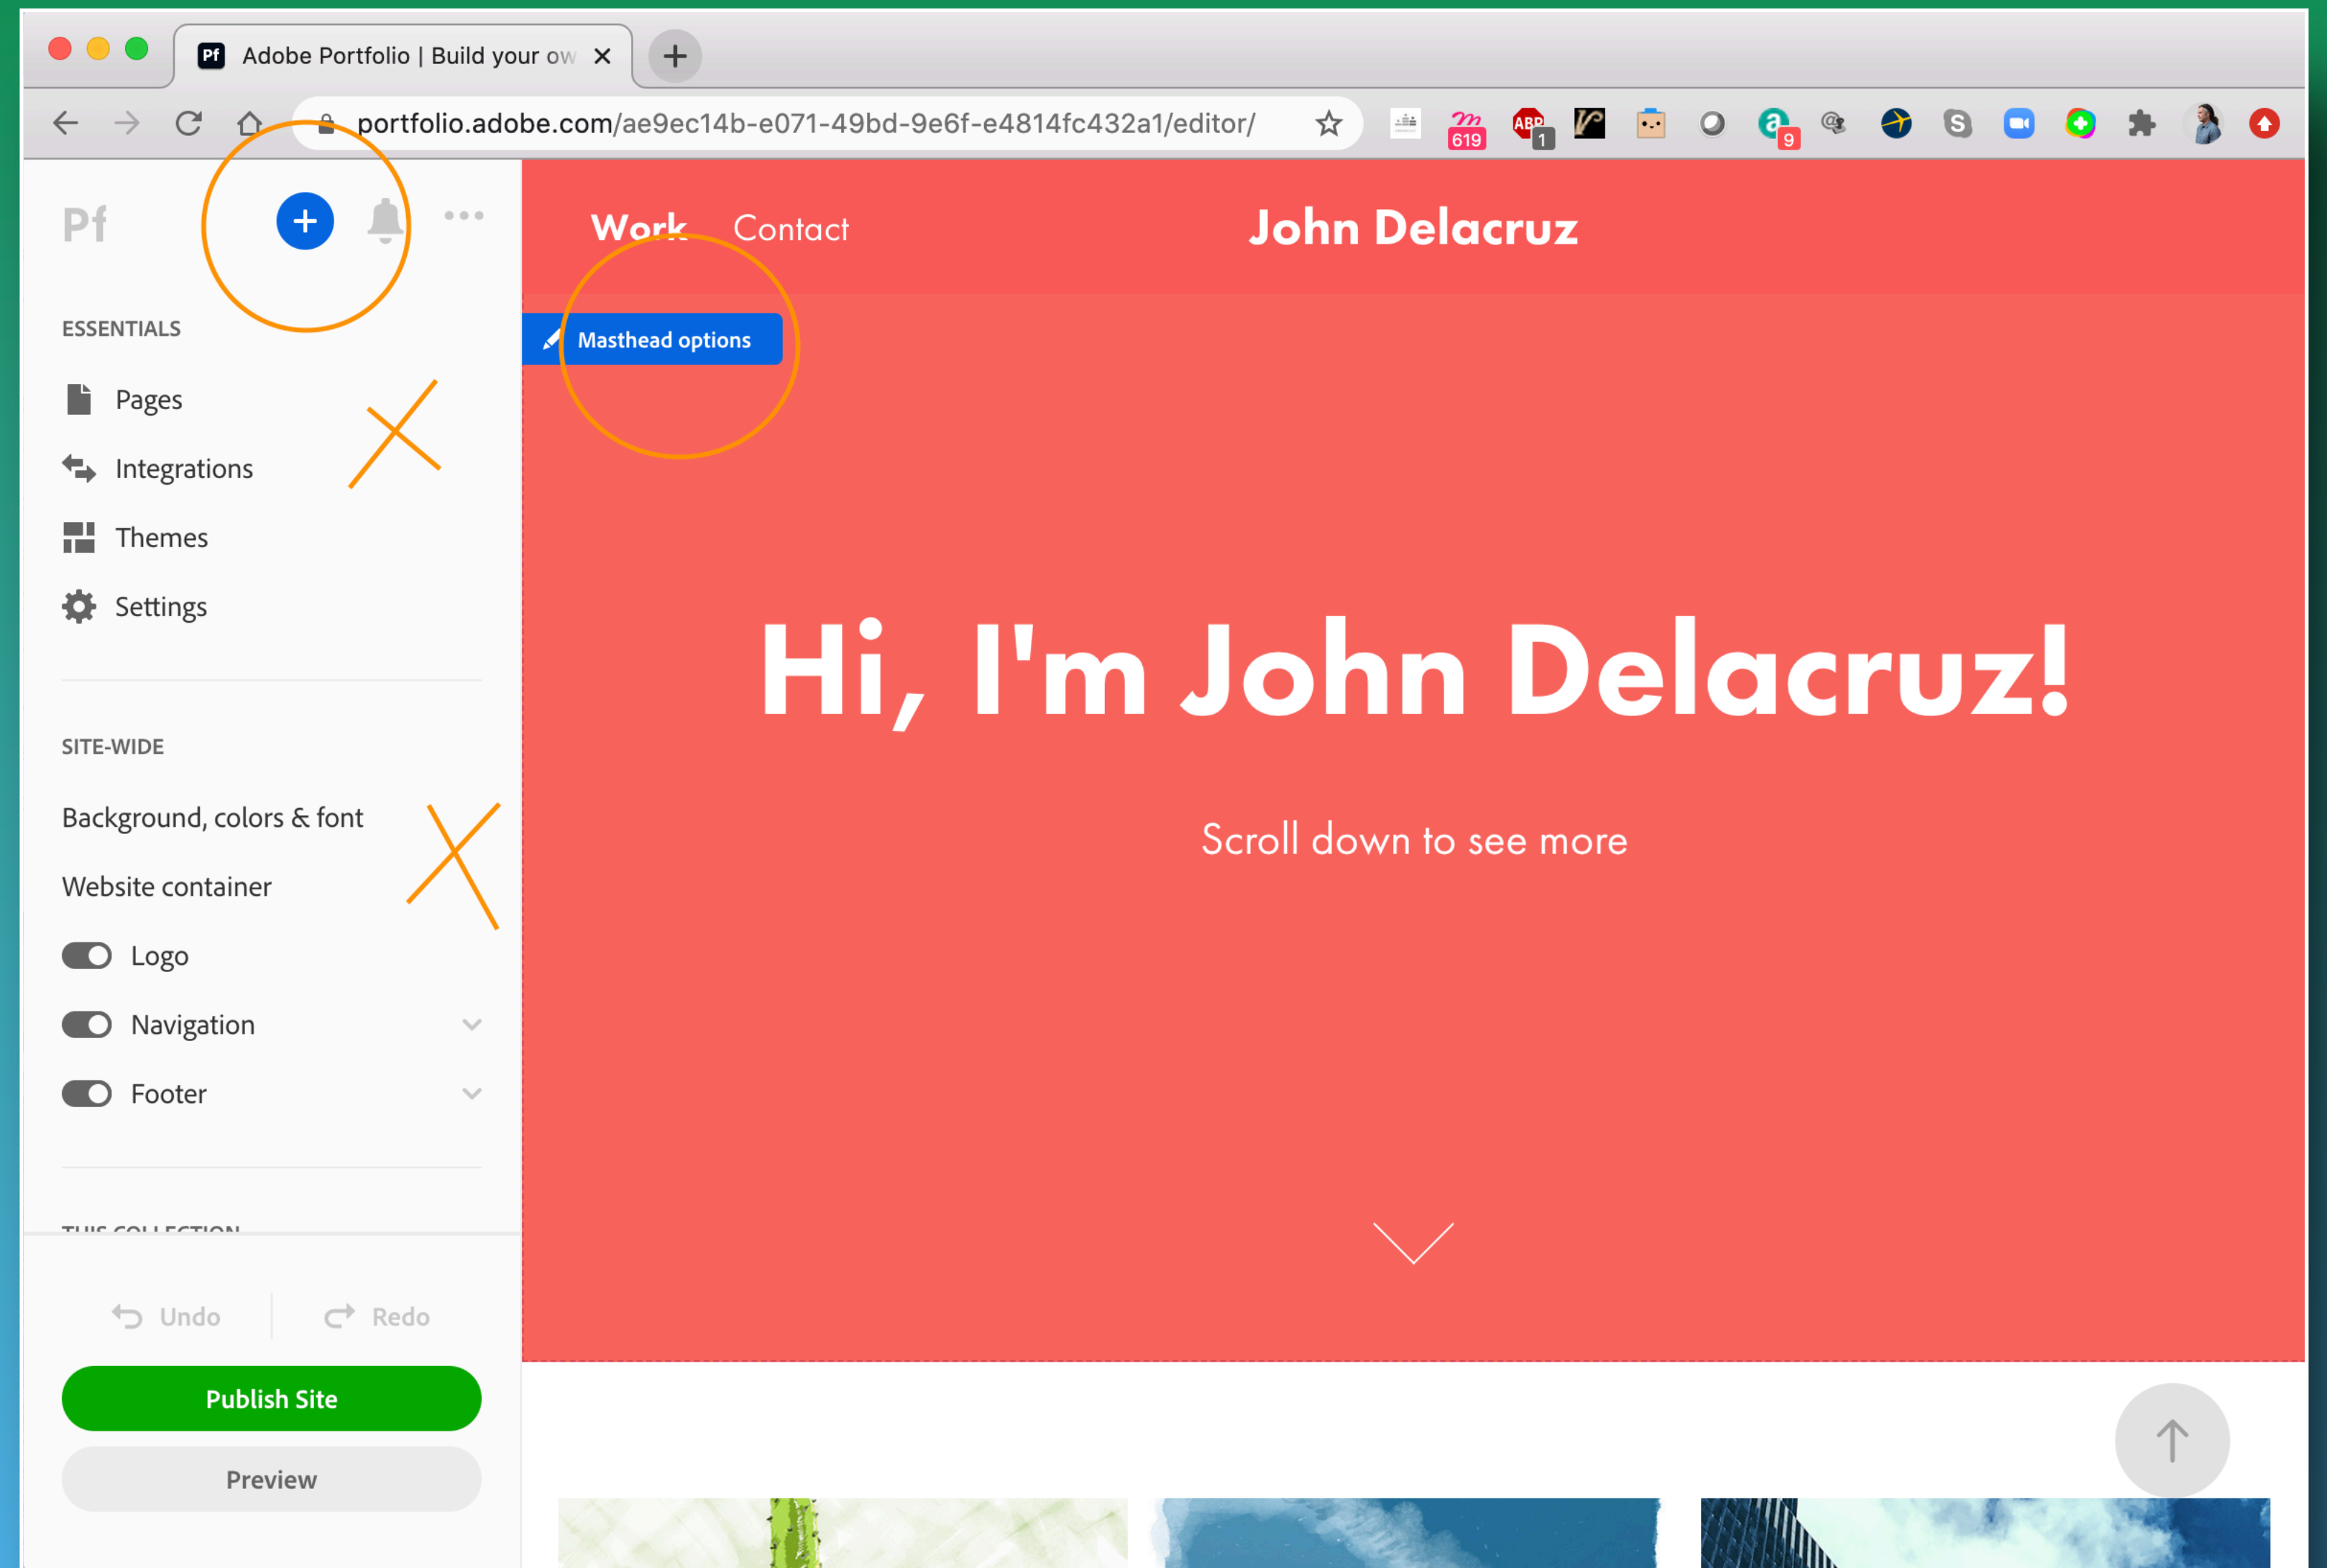

LUDWIG FAVRE

Ludwig

Note the different options for responsive design

Note the different editing options

This could be an issue

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. The browser address bar displays the URL: `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/`. The page title is "John Delacruz" and the navigation menu includes "Work" and "Contact". A "Logo" button is visible in the top right corner of the editor. The left sidebar contains the following sections:

- ESSENTIALS
 - Pages
 - Integrations
 - Themes
 - Settings
- SITE-WIDE
 - Background, colors & font
 - Website container
 - Logo
 - Navigation
 - Footer
- THIS COLLECTION
 - Undo
 - Redo
 - Publish Site
 - Preview

The main workspace displays a grid of 12 image assets. The top row includes a potted plant, a blue water surface, and a modern building. The second row features a forest scene, a close-up of water droplets, and a splash of water. The third row shows a cloudy sky, a vibrant orange flower, and a bird in flight. The bottom row contains a sunset over water, a suspension bridge, and a pond with rocks.

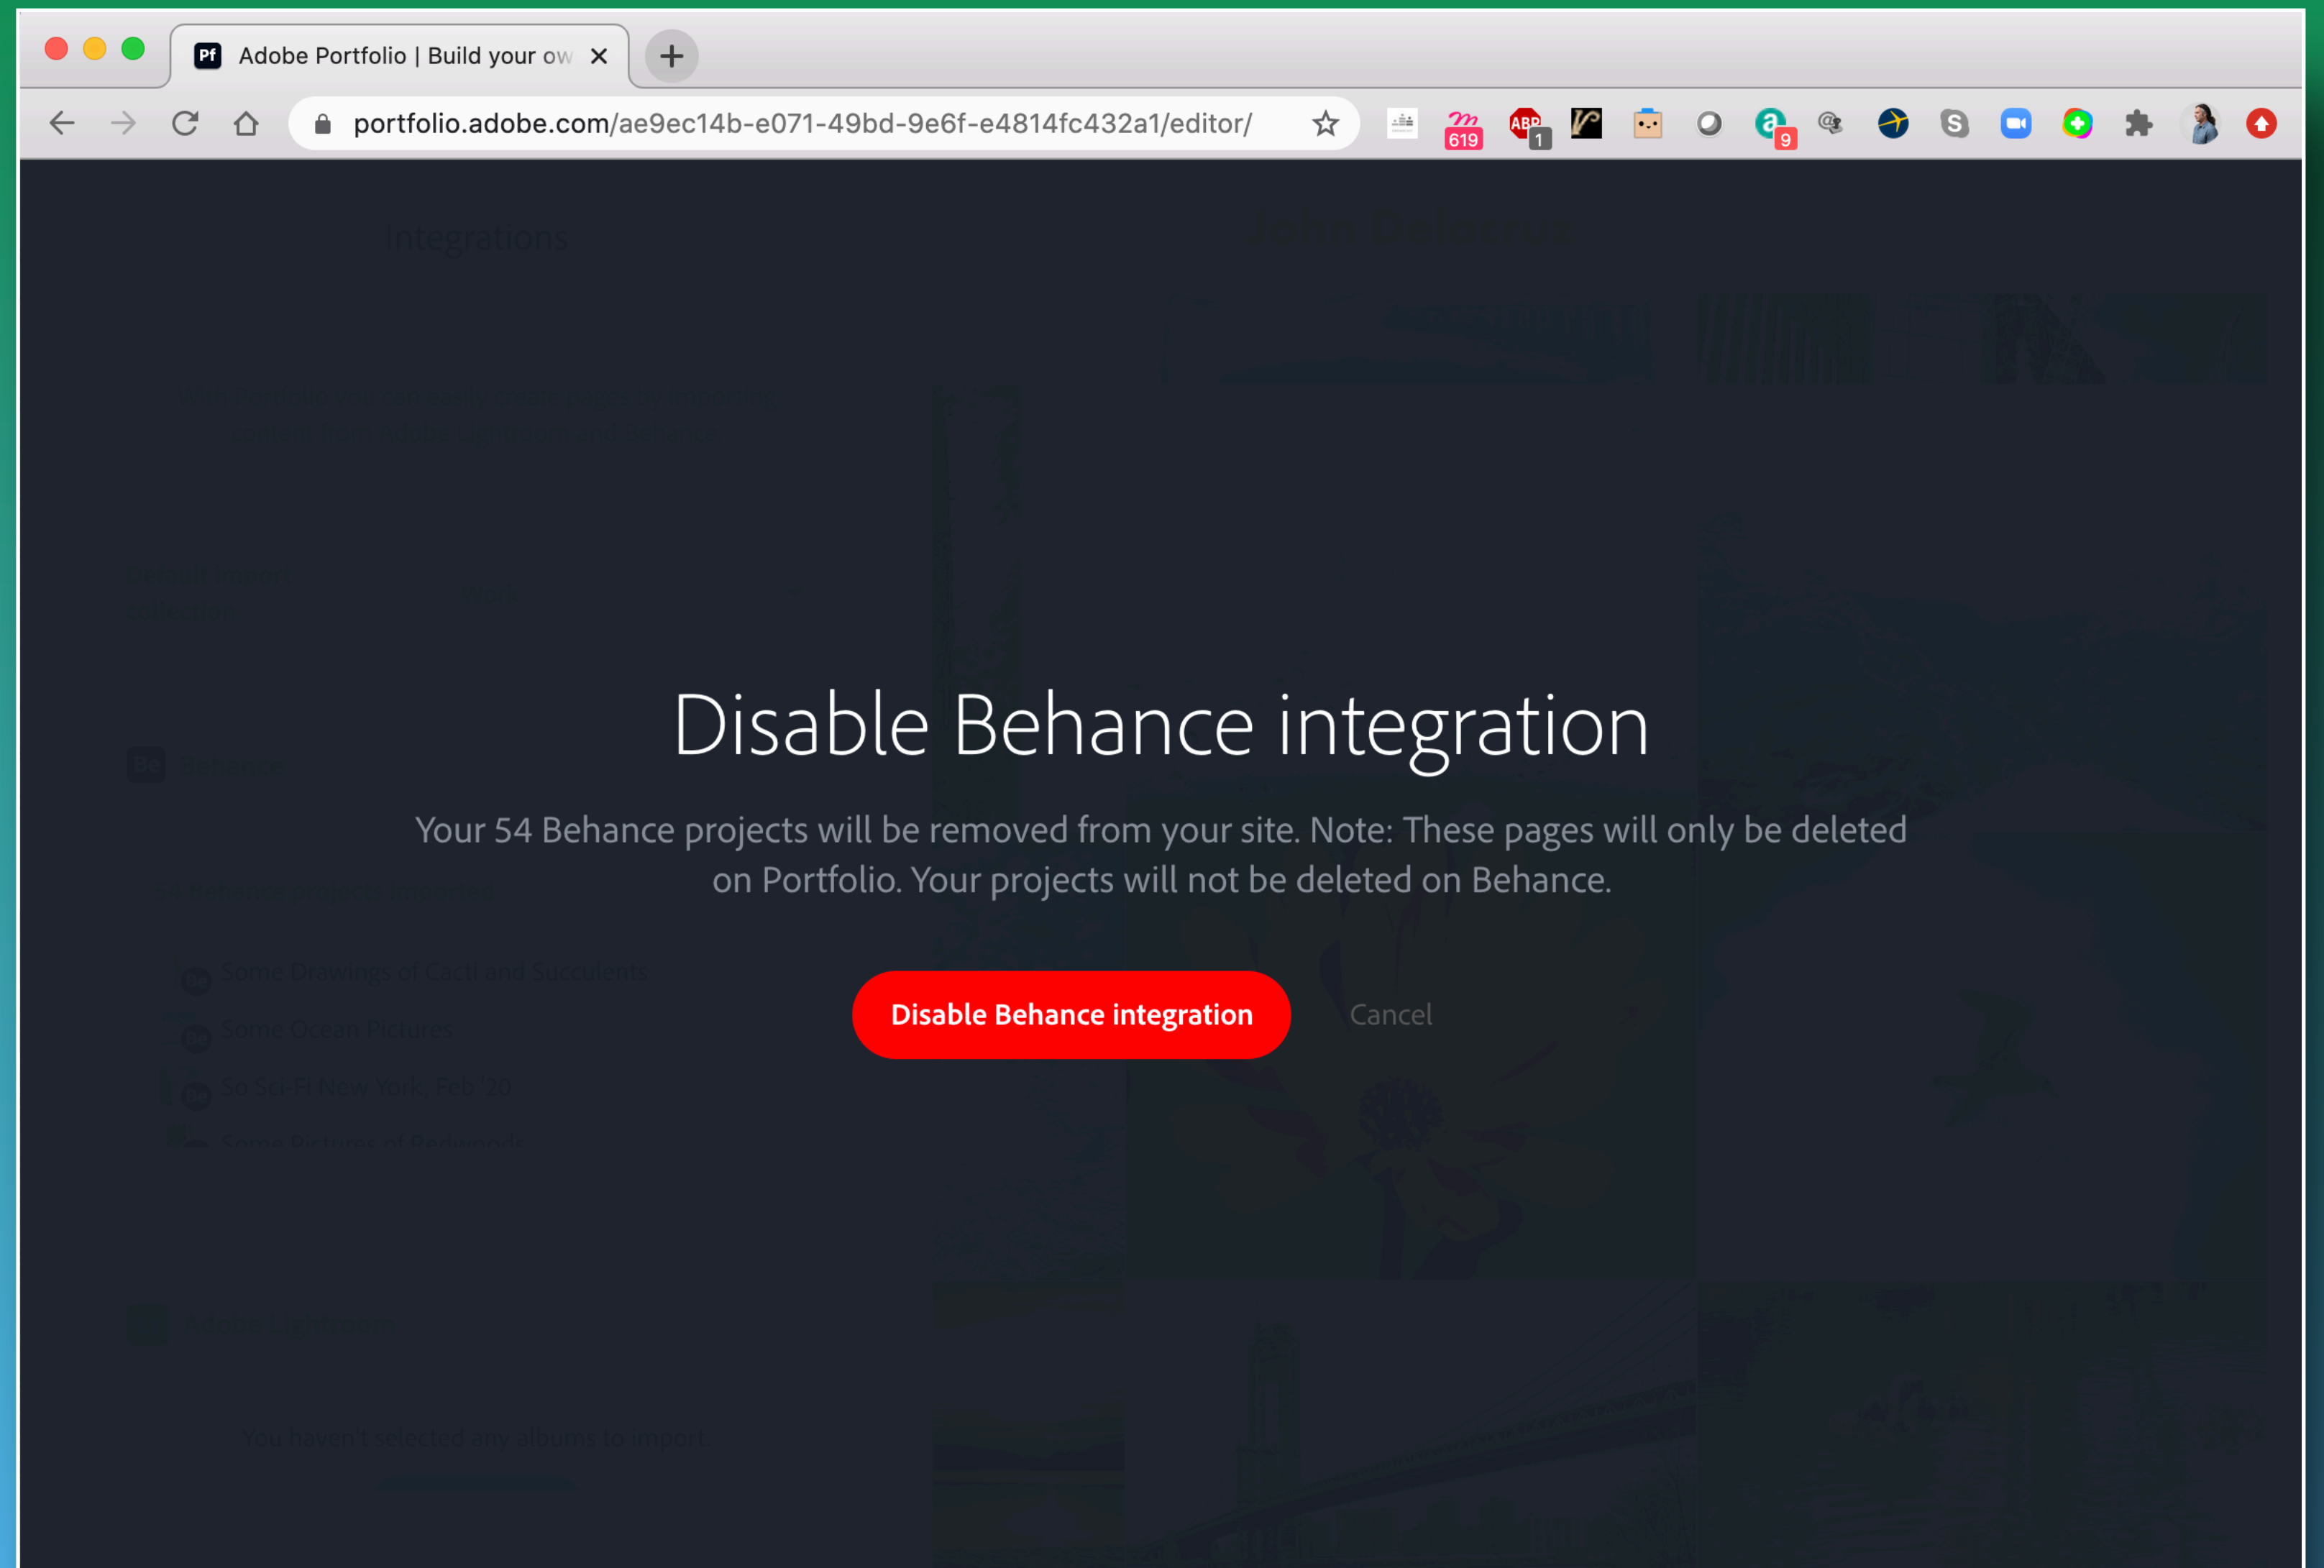

Go to Integrations

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/`. The page title is "Integrations" and the user's name is "John Delacruz". The page content includes:

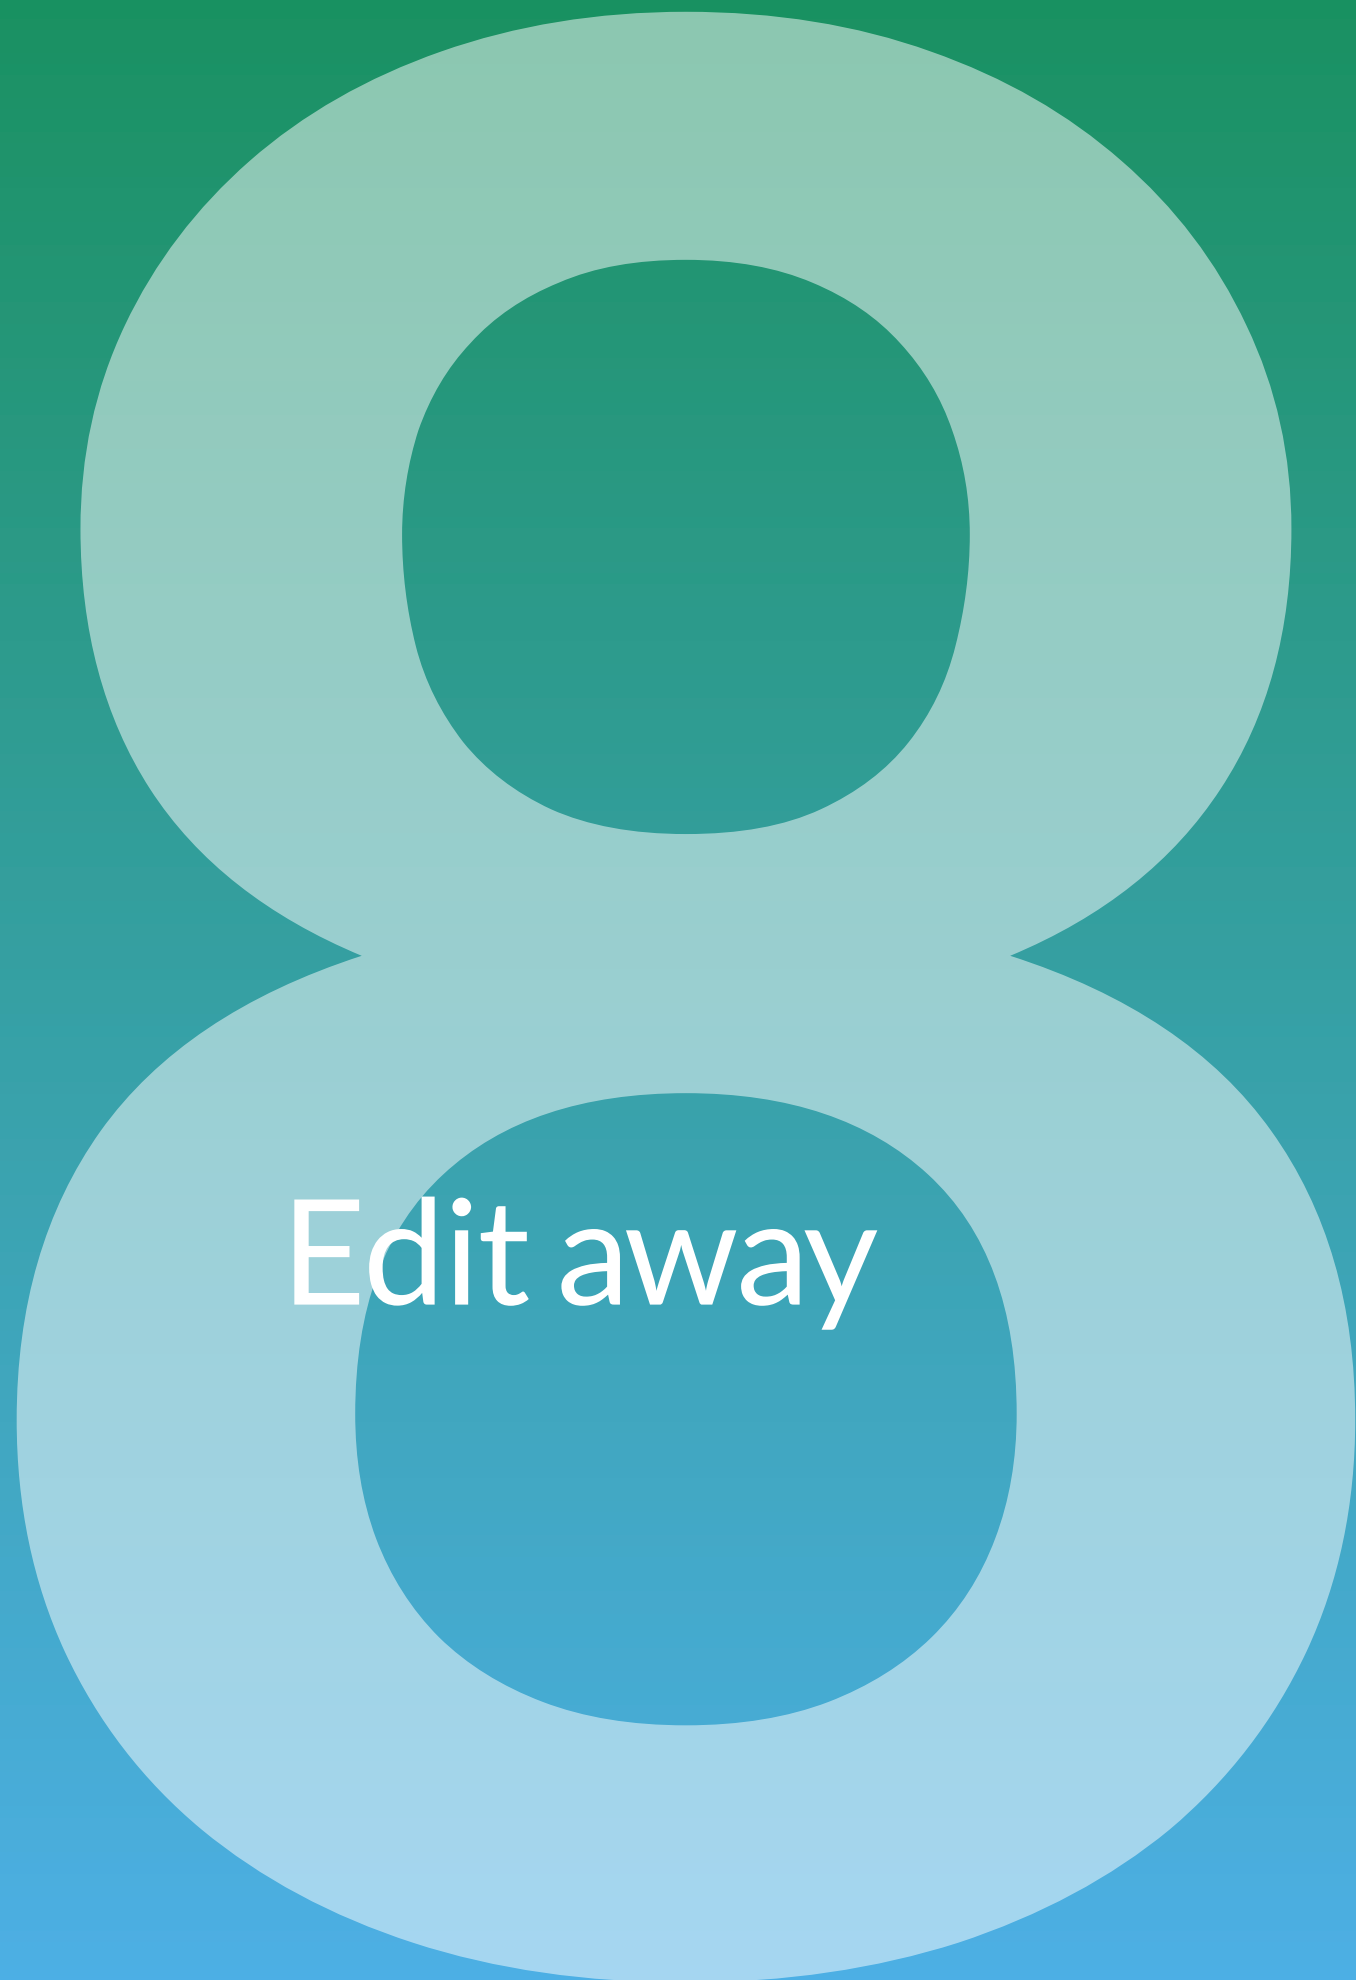

- A header section with the text: "With Portfolio you can easily create pages by importing content from Adobe Lightroom and Behance."
- A "Default import collection" dropdown menu set to "Work".
- A "Behance" section with a toggle switch that is turned on. Below it, a list of imported projects is shown:
 - 54 Behance projects imported
 - Some Drawings of Cacti and Succulents
 - Some Ocean Pictures
 - So Sci-Fi New York, Feb '20
 - Some Pictures of RedwoodsA note below the list states: "Note: New Behance Projects will be automatically imported."
- An "Adobe Lightroom" section with the text: "You haven't selected any albums to import."

The right side of the page features a grid of image thumbnails, including a sunset, a suspension bridge, water splashes, a flower, and a bird in flight.

it's not so scary

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/`. The page title is "Integrations". The main heading is "Disable Behance integration". Below the heading, a message states: "Your 54 Behance projects will be removed from your site. Note: These pages will only be deleted on Portfolio. Your projects will not be deleted on Behance." At the bottom of the dialog, there are two buttons: a red "Disable Behance integration" button and a grey "Cancel" button. On the left side of the dialog, there is a list of project thumbnails with titles such as "Some Drawings of Cacti and Succulents", "Some Ocean Pictures", "So So in New York, Feb '20", and "Some drawings of animals". At the bottom of the list, it says "You haven't selected any albums to import."

Adobe Portfolio | Build your own website

portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/

Pf +

Work Contact John Delacruz

ESSENTIALS

- Pages
- Integrations
- Themes
- Settings

SITE-WIDE

Background, colors & font

Website container

- Logo
- Navigation
- Footer

THIS COLLECTION

Undo Redo

Publish Site

Preview

Masthead options

Hi, I'm John Delacruz!

Scroll down to see more

+ Add Page

↑

Adobe Portfolio | Build your own website

portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/

Masthead title

Work Contact John Delacruz

Style Margins

Text
Hi, I'm John Delacruz!

Font
Futura PT

70 70

Style
Book

T T T

Color
#FFFFFF

Align

Undo Redo

Publish Site

Preview

Masthead title

Hi, I'm John Delacruz!

Scroll down to see more

Add Page

↑

Edit away

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. The browser address bar displays the URL: `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/`. The page being edited is for "John Delacruz" and features a red masthead with the text "Hi, I'm John Delacruz!" and "Scroll down to see more". Navigation links for "Work" and "Contact" are visible. The left sidebar contains the "Masthead options" panel, which includes the following settings:

- Masthead options (dropdown menu)
- Options
 - Make customizations unique to this page
 - Fix masthead position on page scroll
- Masthead (dropdown menu)
- Auto-Height
 - Adjust masthead height based on content
- Height: A slider set to 85%
- Max-Height: A text input field set to 0 px
- Color
 - Include background color
 - Color picker set to #FFFFFF

At the bottom of the sidebar are "Undo" and "Redo" buttons, a green "Publish Site" button, and a grey "Preview" button. The main workspace shows a grid of page placeholders, including an "Add Page" button and an "Up" arrow button.

Add the type of Page
you want

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. The browser address bar displays the URL: `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/`. The page being edited is for "John Delacruz" and features a red header with navigation links for "Work" and "Contact".

On the left, the "Navigation container" settings panel is visible, showing a warning: "Warning: You are editing global styles for all pages." The "Style" section includes "Height" set to 70 px and "Vertical Align" set to Center. The "Fixed Nav" section has "Keep navigation fixed on scroll" checked. The "Normal" section has "On Scroll" selected. The "Color" section has "Include background color" checked with a color picker set to #F75A56. At the bottom of the panel are "Undo", "Redo", "Publish Site", and "Preview" buttons.

The main content area shows a red background with the text "John Delacruz!". A modal dialog titled "Add Page" is open, offering two options: "Page" (Add a custom sub-page into a collection grid) and "Lightroom Album" (Add a sub-page by quickly importing your albums from Lightroom). An orange circle highlights the "+" "Add Page" button in the background, with an arrow pointing to the "Lightroom Album" option in the dialog.

Name the Page

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. The browser address bar displays the URL: `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/`. The page title is "John Delacruz". The "New Page" dialog box is open, with the following fields and options:

- Name: Project 1 (highlighted with an orange circle)
- Destination: Work (dropdown menu)
- Make this my homepage:
- Create Page: (blue button)

The left sidebar contains the following settings:

- Navigation container: Navigation
- Warning: You are editing global styles for all pages.
- Style: Width, Margins
- Height: 70 px
- Vertical Align: Center
- Fixed Nav: Keep navigation fixed on scroll
- Normal: On Scroll
- Color: Include background color, #F75A56

At the bottom of the sidebar are the "Undo", "Redo", "Publish Site", and "Preview" buttons.

Everything is customizable

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays 'portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/...'. The page header includes the Adobe Portfolio logo (Pf), navigation links for 'Work' and 'Contact', and the name 'John Delacruz'. The main content area is titled 'Project 1' and features a 'Start building your page:' section with a grid of ten customizable elements: Image, Text, Photo Grid, Lightroom, Video, Audio, Embed, Button, Social Icons, and Form. A left-hand sidebar provides navigation and settings options, including 'ESSENTIALS' (Pages, Integrations, Themes, Settings), 'SITE-WIDE' (Background, colors & font, Website container, Media content styles), and toggle switches for 'Logo', 'Navigation', and 'Footer'. At the bottom of the sidebar are 'Undo', 'Redo', 'Publish Site', and 'Preview' buttons. A scroll-to-top button is located in the bottom right corner of the editor area.

Add Pages,
Preview, finally Publish

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays the URL: `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/...`. The page header includes the Adobe Portfolio logo (Pf), navigation links for "Work" and "Contact", and the name "John Delacruz".

The main content area is titled "Project 1" and features a "Start building your page:" section with a grid of content blocks: Image, Text, Photo Grid, Lightroom, Video, Audio, Embed, Button, Social Icons, and Form. A scroll-to-top button is located in the bottom right corner.

The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with the following sections:

- ESSENTIALS
 - Pages
 - Integrations
 - Themes
 - Settings
- SITE-WIDE
 - Background, colors & font
 - Website container
 - Media content styles
 - Logo
 - Navigation
 - Footer

At the bottom of the sidebar, there are "Undo" and "Redo" buttons, a prominent green "Publish Site" button, and a grey "Preview" button.

Create a Welcome Page

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. The browser address bar displays the URL: `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/...`. The page title is "John Delacruz" and the navigation menu includes "Work" and "Contact".

The left sidebar contains the following sections:

- ESSENTIALS
 - Pages
 - Integrations
 - Themes
 - Settings
- SITE-WIDE
 - Background, colors & font
 - Website container
 - Media content styles
 - Logo
 - Navigation
 - Footer

At the bottom of the sidebar are "Undo" and "Redo" buttons, a green "Publish Site" button, and a grey "Preview" button.

The main content area displays the "Add Page" dialog box with the following options:

- Page: Create a custom page
- Welcome Page: Create a fullscreen landing page into your site (highlighted with an orange circle)
- Lightroom Album: Create a page by quickly importing your albums from Lightroom
- Collection: Create a grid of sub-pages
- Link: Add a link to external pages within your navigation

A "Cancel" button is located at the bottom of the dialog box. On the right side of the editor, there are buttons for "Video" and "Form", and a scroll-to-top button at the bottom right.

Edit your Welcome Page

The screenshot shows the Adobe Portfolio editor interface. The browser address bar displays the URL: `portfolio.adobe.com/ae9ec14b-e071-49bd-9e6f-e4814fc432a1/editor/...`. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with the following sections:

- ESSENTIALS
 - Pages
 - Integrations
 - Themes
 - Settings
- SITE-WIDE
 - Background, colors & font
 - Media content styles
- THIS PAGE
 - Page background
 - Use global page styles

At the bottom of the sidebar, there are controls for `Undo` and `Redo`, a green `Publish Site` button, and a grey `Preview` button.

The main editing area shows a preview of the welcome page with the following content:

- A blue header bar with the text `Page background`.
- A large heading: `John Delacruz`.
- A sub-heading: `You can edit this text to describe yourself and your work. Double click to edit.`
- A black button with white text: `Edit This Button`.
- A grey box containing the text `Click to add social profiles` and a row of social media icons: `Twitter`, `Behance`, `LinkedIn`, `Facebook`, `Instagram`, and `& more`.

I'm always happy to chat

some more:

john.delacruz@sjsu.edu

Have Fun