Course Format

Technology Intensive, Hybrid, and Online Courses

JS 101 is an online-only course. There are no class meetings. Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on the Canvas Learning Management System course login website at <http://sjsu.instructure.com>.

All work is completed online on the Canvas website. Students must be able to connect regularly to the internet to complete the course requirements. Your computer must have video and audio playback features to access assigned videos and audiofiles from outside websites (e.g., YouTube, NPR). You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU on Spartan App Portal <http://one.sjsu.edu> to learn of any updates.

Canvas Course Page and e-mail

Copies of course materials will be posted on Canvas. You are responsible for regularly checking your e-mail and Canvas (multiple times per week is recommended) regarding announcements, reminders, and any additional course materials. The majority of course materials will be posted in Adobe PDF format; if you choose to download them, you will need Adobe Reader to view the documents. There is no cost to download Adobe Reader (<http://get.adobe.com/reader/otherversions/>). Some course materials may need to be accessed via the internet (i.e., web sites).

Course Description

This course will cover an interdisciplinary, historical and comparative examination of justice concepts and controversies, including the state's role in promoting justice and perpetuating injustice; legitimate versus illegitimate violence; human rights, stateless persons, and the international community; the relationship between social justice and criminal justice.

Note: A grade of "C" or better is required for Justice Studies majors.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Critically examine social justice issues and develop a broader understanding of social justice and the relationship between social justice and social policy.
2. Reflect upon the relationship between race, class, gender, nationality and social justice.
3. Write reports, assignments, and papers with professional and academic aptitude demonstrating a familiarity of class materials.
4. Read academic materials with proficiency.
5. Contribute to class discussion in thoughtful, critical, and collaborative ways.
6. Students should read, write, and contribute to discussion at a skilled and capable level.

Required Texts/Readings

| 1) Quizzes (3) | 20% of Final Grade |
| 2) Canvas Discussions (8) | 15% of Final Grade |
| 3) Midterm Exam | 20% of Final Grade |
| 4) Film Review | 20% of Final Grade |
| 5) Final Exam | 25% of Final Grade |

- 1) Quizzes – Three quizzes will be administered online via Canvas and will be available for specific windows of time. Once a student begins a quiz, a limited amount of time will be given to complete it. These quizzes are designed to be benchmark to show how you are doing in the class at different points in the semester.
- 2) Canvas Discussions – Eight discussion questions will be posted on Canvas at various points during the semester (See the schedule for exact dates). Students are expected to respond to the question in 3-5 thoughtful sentences showing knowledge and application of the material covered in lecture. Students are also expected to reply to two other students in a thoughtful, substantive comments.

Students must show an understanding of the material covered in lecture and homework in their original posts and responses.

Discussion boards will be open for one week. They will open Monday, the week that the reading is due and close Sunday at 11:59. Please make sure to respond as early in the week as possible to give other students a chance to respond to one another.

- 3) Midterm Exam - Students will complete a midterm exam. The format of the midterm will include a three short essay questions. Students can respond to two (2) of the questions to respond to. The midterm prompts will be made available to students on 9/28. Students must submit their responses by 10/2 for full credit.
- 4) Film Review - Students will view justice related documentaries and write a 2-page (single-spaced, 12 point font) assessment of the film, describing the justice issue(s) it addresses, advocacy strategies, and the actions of government(s) in response to the issue.
- 5) Final Exam – The final exam will require students to recall information, theory, discourse, and their application discussed in lecture or the readings and analyze said information. The final exam will be comprehensive. The format will be announced closer to the date of the final.

The final exam will be available online on Thursday, Dec 10th from 7:45-10:00PM. Check to make sure that this final time does not conflict with other online classes that you are taking.

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9 (<http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>), relevant information to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. is available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at <http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/>”.

Department of Justice Studies Reading and Writing Philosophy

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

University Credit Hour Requirement

Per University Policy S16-9, available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practice. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Students should review SJSU’s Academic Integrity policy:

www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/docs/Academic_Integrity_Policy_S07-2.pdf

Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development.

The University will not tolerate instances of academic dishonesty. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. Students must complete all assignments unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have previously submitted for credit, or plan to submit for another class, please note that the SJSU Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

Reminder: Provide attribution / citations for all quotes. Do not copy or re-use the work of others. Copying other people’s answers or discussion responses is plagiarism. Do not submit assignments that you are submitting for credit in other classes – this is self-plagiarism. If you have questions about correct citations or plagiarism, review the modules on the Canvas site and/or contact the professor.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf>, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s written/emailed permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

Class Protocol

1. This course depends on student participation, discussion, and interaction. Prepare for class to ensure you can contribute to discussion and debate.
2. All class participants are expected to foster an environment that encourages rigorous academic discussion and respectful participation, rather than silencing others (be respectful to one another, do not insult or intimidate others, evaluate alternative views with an open mind, check and provide facts to support analysis).
3. Students are expected to complete all readings and assignments by the dates indicated on the syllabus. Be sure to check the course Canvas website regularly for updates.
4. Readings about human rights abuses, injustice, discrimination, and violence can be challenging intellectually, personally, and emotionally. All students are encouraged to reflect on the course materials mindfully and engage in self-care; contact the professor if you are struggling with a particular topic or reading. If you or a friend is in need of emotional or mental health support, please visit SJSU's Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) www.sjsu.edu/counseling service. Phone: (408) 924-5910. Location: Student Wellness Center, Room 300.

Student Technology Resources

Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center at <http://www.sjsu.edu/at/asc/> located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and in the Associated Students Lab on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library. A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include DV and HD digital camcorders; digital still cameras; video, slide and overhead projectors; DVD, CD, and audiotape players; sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

SJSU Peer Connections

Peer Connections' free tutoring and mentoring is designed to assist students in the development of their full academic potential and to inspire them to become independent learners. Peer Connections tutors are trained to provide content-based tutoring in many lower division courses (some upper division) as well as writing and study skills assistance. Small group and individual tutoring are available. Peer Connections mentors are trained to provide support and resources in navigating the college experience. This support includes assistance in learning strategies and techniques on how to be a successful student. Peer Connections has a learning commons, desktop computers, and success workshops on a wide variety of topics. For more information on services, hours, locations, or a list of current workshops, please visit Peer Connections website at <http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu> for more information.
