Amendment to Senate Bylaws -Section 4.1.3.
Amendment to Senate Bylaws -Section 4.5.2.1.
Amendment to Senate Policy S19-2, Appendix A
Amendment to Senate Policy S15-10

Rationale

Starting around fall 2022, the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate restarted a conversation concerning senate representation for SJSU staff. In AY22/23, the Organization and Government Committee (hereafter “O&G”) in consultation with the Senate Executive Committee began considering the question of senate expansion to include staff representation in the senate. Given the scope and breadth of the senate expansion question, in spring 2023, O&G proposed a special committee be empaneled to review the prospects of additional senate seats for staff.

The special Committee on Senate Representation completed their review and analysis of the matter in fall of 2024. The question of additional senate seats for staff (AS 1876 and AS 1877) was submitted to the Academic Senate for a vote. Following the senate vote to support expansion, the proposed changes to the SJSU Constitution and By-laws were submitted to the SJSU faculty for a campus-wide vote in fall of 2024. With SJSU faculty voting in favor of staff representation, O&G became responsible for overseeing amending applicable SJSU By-laws and Constitution.¹

At the same time that senate expansion was being considered, O&G began exploring challenges associated with the size and complexity of the Instructional and Student Affairs Committee (hereafter “ISA”). Though ISA has been able to discharge its responsibilities to the SJSU community, the size and composition of the committee has been a subject of discussion with the ISA Chair throughout AY 23/24 and AY24/25.

¹ Senate By-law - 4.1.1 places overall responsibility for establishing committees and appointing its members to the Senate. Additionally, SJSU Policy S19-2 assigns responsibility to O&G to review and make recommendations regarding charges, functions, creation or abolishment of university and senate committees.

With its broad coverage of both instructional affairs and student affairs, ISA has had to expand its membership to encompass experts in a host of areas. In practice this means that referral discussions often fall outside numerous members' expertise and interests. This has led to a decline in engagement and attendance. Currently, ISA is staffed by 20 individuals from faculty, students, and administration.

Scholarly consideration of committee operation suggests that individual committee members become increasingly ineffective as committee size grows². Empirical research on non-profit organizations suggests that large governing boards “tend to be inefficient and do not contribute positively to governance effectiveness” (Prybil et al., 2008, p. 5).³

In addition to its size, the volume and variety of referrals ISA receives is overloading the committee's ability to address referrals as expeditiously as the committee would prefer. The First Reading of AS1888 proposed splitting the ISA committee into two new policy committees. Feedback following the first reading resulted in O&G reconsidering its initial proposal. Rather than split ISA, O&G is proposing to reduce the number of seats on ISA. O&G analysis of the placement of new staff senators continues to support the addition of a staff senator to ISA⁴. Conversations with Chair Sullivan-Green⁵ indicate that both instructional and student matters will remain equally well-served following removal of selected ISA seats.

O&G proposes to add a staff senator and faculty senator at-large to Curriculum & Research (C&R) and two staff senators added to O&G. Additional faculty senators necessary to maintain the balance of faculty to non-faculty required by Senate By-law 1.5 will be placed on Professional Standards (PS) (2 Faculty senators at-large, preference for one seat given to a Senior Lecturer Senator (as defined in S21-2) when possible), and the University Library Board (ULB) (1 Faculty senator at-large).

O&G continues to propose that the Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies and the Associate Dean for Graduate Studies, both EXO positions on ISA and not currently granted full voting rights, be granted full voting rights consistent with Senate By-law 4.5.4.⁶

In consideration of the senate expansion and challenges associated with managing the ISA committee, O&G proposes that it be:

⁴ The role of staff is crucial in supporting students' personal, academic, and social development. Staff typically perform a range of functions such as student support and counseling, academic advising, student activities and engagement, career services, health and wellness, residence life, crisis management, and leadership development.

4.1.3.1 In the case of a unit (College of Health and Human Sciences, College of Business, College of Education, College of Engineering, College of Humanities and the Arts, College of Science, College of Social Sciences, and the General Unit) which has an insufficient number of elected representatives to occupy one seat on each of the policy committees, elected representatives from that unit shall be given committee assignment preference by the Committee on Committees and the Senate Executive Committee.

RESOLVED that section 4.1.3.2 be added to the SJSU Academic Senate By-laws as follows:

4.1.3.2. When assigning elected representatives to the Faculty senator at-large seats on the Professional Standards policy committee, elected representatives from the General Unit shall be given preference. In no instance will a unit from which representatives are elected have more than two representatives on Professional Standards.

RESOLVED that SJSU Academic Senate By-law 4.5.2.1 be amended as follows:

4.5.2.1 Normally, each policy committee includes representation from each of the units from which faculty representatives are elected. Each of the units from which faculty representatives are elected will be assigned one and only one seat on each policy committee, with one exception: a Faculty Senator at-large seat may be occupied by a senator from a unit already represented on a policy committee consistent with Senate By-law 6.1.

RESOLVED that SJSU Policy S19-2, Appendix A be amended as follows:

Vote: 7-0-0 (yea, abstain, nay)

Present: Baur, Buyco, Elahi, Jochim, Joshi, Madura, Pendyala

Absent: Lee, Muñoz-Muñoz

Financial impact:

O&G predicts no significant financial impacts from the proposed amendments.

Workload impact:

OG forecasts that workload impacts on current ISA members will likely improve. Reducing ISA's size will allow more targeted and efficient execution of committee responsibilities.

New staff seats will create additional burden for new staff senators. Newly elected staff senators will need the support of their supervisors, SJSU administrators, and the SJSU Senate to collaboratively organize their administrative and senate responsibilities. O&G recommends that campus administrative leaders encourage and support staff participation on the senate and collaboratively work with their staff on innovative approaches to meeting all responsibilities⁷.

⁷ Strategies to discuss might include task automation or AI-assisted work completion, for example.
