

CSULearn Trainings to Support the Undocumented Community

CSU GUIDE TO SUPPORTING OUR UNDOCUMENTED COMMUNITY

This new training provides guidance to students and employees on responding to immigration enforcement and offers strategies to foster a supportive and safe campus environment for immigrant and undocumented communities. You will learn:

- Proactive strategies of support
- Protocols for engagement with immigration enforcement
- Legal rights and resources to help the undocumented population
- Guidance on FAQs

BECOMING AN ALLY TO THE UNDOCUMENTED COMMUNITY

This training aims to identify, educate, and support allies by creating awareness of the current laws and legislation surrounding the undocumented student population and mixed-status families. You will learn:

- Key definitions
- What ally and allyship are and why they are important
- Undocumented population demographics
- Your role in supporting the CSU's undocumented population
- Resources to help you build your allyship skills

Certificate of completion offered at the end of these trainings.

NOTE: Both courses are an overview and not intended to replace campus-specific training. You need to use your campus-specific or Chancellor's Office email account to access.
